SAUCES & SPICES

PO VALLEY FOODS

Casarecci di Calabria is an artisan company preserving the typical flavors of Calabria, located about 800 meters above sea level in the mountainous 'la Sila'. It's where nature has remained intact and untouched, and where these all-natural, meticulously selected herb and spice blends are processed by hand.

These blends are designed to allow home chefs to quickly recreate traditional Italian dishes simply by adding a few common ingredients. Dishes include Zucchini and Onion Frittata, Pesto alla Genovese, and Tomato Bruschetta, as well as sauces Aglio, Olio e Peperoncino, Spaghettonata, Calabrese and All'Arrabiata. These delicious spice blends also enhance any recipe with just a sprinkle. They are available in 0.60-0.80g packages, SRP $4.95.

Imported exclusively by Po Valley Foods, Casarecci di Calabria Spice Blends are beautifully packaged and perfect to display on the shelf or in gourmet gift baskets. Free counter display case with initial order of 48 units, mix and match. Po Valley Foods. All natural. All Italian.

ACCOMPANIMENTS

GRACE&I

Distinguish the cheese board with unique creations from Grace&i. The Fruit+Nut Press Collection combines striking appearance with exquisite flavor. Similar to a fig loaf in concept, its combinations set it apart: the Hawaiian Press, Napa Port Fig Press, Fruit+Nut Press, Harvest Press (persimmon, quince and nuts), Fig+Nut Press and a limited-edition Holiday Press. No flour, no added sugar, and no dairy—simply the purest fruit and nuts, uniquely presented. Each comes on its own wood cutting board, for easy serving paired with cheese, as a snack or a dessert alternative.

The company completes its offering with a range of small-batch preserves and savory condiments, in boundary-pushing flavors like our award-winning Raspberry Peach Champagne, Ghost Pepper Peach and Mango Turshi. For the adventurous, the Turshi series—close to chutney, but definitely different—is inspired by decades of family tradition, and an obsession with bold flavor profiles with their roots in ancient times.

Perfect for the die-hard food enthusiast, Grace&i creations are guaranteed to leave a lasting impression. All products, 12/case.

TEA & COFFEE

HARNEY & SONS

Award-winning chef Marcus Samuelsson has created Ambessa, a line of four whole leaf tea blends launched with Harney & Sons. "Ambessa" means lion in the Amharic language, and represents the traditional emblem of Ethiopia.

Each flavor evokes the taste and aroma of a different place that informs Samuelsson's cuisine: Safari Breakfast is a robust blend of Kenyan and Tanzanian estate teas, redolent of East African terroir and the chef's birthplace; Lingonberry Green blends two northern cultures, Japan and Scandinavia, that both revere simplicity and balance, referencing Samuelsson's Swedish childhood; Choco Nut acknowledges his Swiss apprenticeship with an aromatic black tea blend with velvety undertones of dark chocolate, caramel and peanuts; and The Earl of Harlem, a tribute to the original Harlem Renaissance that adds a wisp of smoke to the traditional Earl Grey and celebrates Samuelsson's American coming of age. Each tin contains 20 silken sachets and retails for $9.

Available for wholesale order through www.harney.com or by email chris@harneyteas.com.

SYRUPS

KEEP IT SIMPLE SYRUP®

Kiss your old drinks goodbye! This all-natural, spearmint-infused simple syrup (known as Kiss®) began as the quintessential solution to coffee house syrups loaded with artificial ingredients and bars lacking fresh mint for their Mojitos.

President Susan Martinson, a former barista, developed the recipe at home. This premium top-shelf mixer hit the market in late 2011 at state-run liquor stores in Virginia, known for its high standards for Sweet Southern Tea and Mint Juleps. By early May, most stores had sold out.

Steeping spearmint leaves sets Kiss apart from basic, unflavored simple syrup, gives it its distinctive color and aroma, and eliminates the need to muddle. With more sugar than water, it's sweeter than other brands (so you use less) and free of artificial additives.

Kiss is shelf-stable, fat free, gluten-free, HFCS free, certified kosher by the OU, and a Virginia's Finest® product. Add a Kiss to cocktails, non-alcoholic beverages, desserts, even salad dressings. With many uses for the creative cook, it is perfect for gourmet retail stores and coffee shops. Demand more in your drinks—you deserve a kiss™! Available nationally.

For more information, call 888.949.KISS (5477), email kiss@keepitsimplesyrup.com or visit www.keepitsimplesyrup.com.
